The Collier House Staff will commit themselves to supporting you through this journey.

Statement

The Collier House Program is meant to help prepare you for a smooth transition into early adulthood. The program was designed to assist you in developing the life skills necessary to lead self-sufficient and productive lives.

Each resident is expected to maintain employment and/or further their education. This will help foster the life skills needed for a successful future. The Collier House will aid each young woman toward finding permanent housing before discharge.

During your stay at the Collier House, you will meet with the Program Manager to develop an Individual Transition Plan. This plan will help identify educational/vocational, housing, mental health, health and independent living goals and the steps necessary to achieve them. This plan will be modified throughout your stay.

Once you have chosen a discharge date, the Collier Staff will help you find and secure permanent housing. They will cover topics such as: Where you will live, how you will support yourself, what type of medical coverage/health insurance you will have, etc. The Collier Staff dedicates themselves to helping you through this transition.

If there are any damages reported, the appropriate amount of money will be deducted from the program fee before it is returned back to you. This money will help you pay for the security deposit and first month's rent for your new apartment!

Good luck! We look forward to working with you!
The Collier House Staff

Collier's Mission Statement

The mission of Collier Services is based on one philosophy of deep respect for the inherent worth of each individual, of regard for the environment and belief in the capacity for personal change. In each program, Collier Services strives to provide a place where these sacred beliefs are honored. Collier commits itself to form relationships with people so that each person may experience a sense of belonging, dignity and hope.

Conscious that no one program addresses the needs of all, Collier positions itself to respond creatively to human needs which are consistent with the ministry of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd. The mission of Collier Services is open to all who embrace this philosophy of personal empowerment.

Residents Rights

1. Each Resident will receive prompt medical treatment;
2. Have access to an appropriate education;
3. Live in a safe, clean, healthy environment;
4. Be free of physical or sexual harassment or abuse and corporal punishment
5. Attend religious services of their choice; and
6. Have unimpeded communication to the Division.

House Rules and Guidelines

The Collier House is a transitional living program for young women. The Program provides a safe, attractive and stable environment, with staff present 24 hours per day. The staff offers the residents a supportive and encouraging environment. The program helps young women develop the skills they need to live healthy, self-sufficient and productive lives.

Grounding is defined as a restriction of community access. Each resident is allowed to attend work and school if they are grounded.

Restrictive Behavior Management Practices

The Collier House does not use physical contact restraining techniques. In matters of emergency (physical aggression or out-of-control behavior) the local police will be notified.

Rules Regarding Spending Nights Outside the Program

Residents may spend four nights per month outside the Collier Home. All overnight visits must be pre-approved by the Program Manager. A resident who wishes to sleep outside the Collier Home for more than four nights per month must submit a written request to the Program Manager, who will then request final authorization from the Program Director. If a pre-approval is not obtained before the overnight the resident will receive two weeks grounding. Each resident must call to check in before going to bed each night they are out. Failure to call in will result in two days grounding.

If a resident is not sleeping out however is out for the day, they must also call to check in every four hours. Failure to call the entire day will require the resident to come home 3 hours before their curfew the next time they go out.

Search and Seizure Policy

We believe that every child is entitled to a safe and secure environment. This requires that we ensure our home free of illegal drugs, weapons and contraband. Contraband is defined by the DCF Manual of Requirements as: illegal drugs, unauthorized property, stolen property, or items otherwise obtained illegally. Room searches are not routinely conducted. This is done only if we have reason to suspect a resident has possession of the above-stated items. If a resident is available at the time of the search, she will be given the opportunity to observe the search. However, if the resident(s) is unavailable for an extended period of time, or it is an emergency that cannot wait for the resident to be present, then a search may be conducted without the presence of the resident(s). The search will be conducted in the presence of two staff members, one of whom is a supervisor. If two staff members are not available, the staff member working will notify the police and wait for their arrival. The staff will verify which resident is responsible for any weapon or contraband brought into the home before imposing a consequence on the resident(s).

If weapons and/or contraband are believed to be either in the resident's car, purse, garment or other immediate possession, the resident will be asked to empty them voluntarily. If she refuses, we will not conduct the search ourselves. The police will be notified and they will conduct a lawful search of the resident's immediate possessions. The resident will be placed with one-on-one supervision until the police arrive.

Collier House Fair Appeal Procedure

If a resident disagrees with the decision of the Program Manager to terminate her placement, she may discuss the situation with our Director of Residential Programs. If still not resolved, the resident may appeal to the Executive Director of Collier Services.

Religious Policy

Although, Collier Services is a Catholic Organization, services are provided on a non-denominational basis. Each resident has the right to practice and attend the religious services of her choice. The Collier House will neither coerce nor require participation in religious activities. The Collier House does not punish or reward residents for participating in religious activities.

Substance Abuse

Absolutely no alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs and/or non-prescription drugs are permitted on the premises. This includes possession, buying, or selling of drugs and/or alcohol in the Collier House and/or outside of the House is strictly prohibited.

If it is determined that a young person is abusing drugs or alcohol at any level, she will be required to participate in substance abuse treatment as a condition to remaining within the Program. The resident will go for an evaluation by an outpatient community based program that specializes in substance abuse issues. Consequence for the abuse of drugs or alcohol as well as suspicion of possession or use is two weeks grounding.

Fire Escape Plan

If a fire occurs at the Collier House all girls must exit the premises immediately and safely. All girls are to meet in front of St. Joseph's church by the Yellow Sign. Please exit the house as promptly and quietly as possible.

Drug Screening

Before we conduct a blood or urine screening on a child to determine substance abuse, we must ensure that:

Substance abuse screenings are conducted only the following limited circumstances:

- a. when screening is ordered by the court
- b. when the home is specifically designated as a drug treatment facility
- c. when ordered by a physician who has determined that such screening is necessary

The home will file an incident report for every instance involving a frisk search, general practice search when illegal drugs or other contraband are discovered, a staff member's request for a child to empty a possession within a child's immediate control, a room search resulting in the discovery of weapons, illegal drugs or other contraband, and a blood or urine screening.

Grievances/Problems

If the resident has a grievance or problem, she is able to speak with either the Youth Counselors or the Program Manager. Grievances are usually settled at this point. At times, the Collier House Staff may want to include the resident's DCF, YCM or CMO worker for assistance; the resident may request to speak with him/her.

There is a staff on duty at all times of the day and a resident may speak freely with whomever is working. Speaking with staff regarding grievances/problems does not necessarily mean that the resident will receive her desired outcome. The Collier House Staff's main concern is that the young women have a fair opportunity for input and receive a fair settlement.

If a young woman's grievance involves the other residents, she may call a house meeting. She would inform the Youth Counselor on duty. The staff member will be present. The staff member may also call a house meeting to help solve grievances, if necessary.

Mail

Residents are permitted to open all letters and packages unattended. If a staff member suspects that a package contains contraband, the resident will be asked to open the package in front of two staff members.

Meals

Each week, a resident will be assigned an evening to prepare and cook dinner for the house (Sunday through Thursday). Dinner must be cleaned up by the designated resident immediately following the meal. The Collier House Staff encourages all residents to try to be present for the dinner hour. If a resident is unable to attend dinner due to their school or work schedule, the staff on duty should be notified. If a resident misses a cook night and fails to find coverage by another resident, they will receive an extra cook night for the following week. Each resident is responsible for clean up on their cook night. Failure to do so will require them to clean up after dinner the following night.

Cell phones and radios must be turned off during dinner. Food is not to be left unattended on the stove or in the oven. Eating is only allowed in the kitchen and dining areas. If a resident eats in any other area of the house they will receive one day grounding.

Household Responsibilities

Every resident will have a daily chore to complete. The chores rotate on a weekly basis. Chores should be completed before leaving the house. If this is not a possibility, it should be completed as soon as the resident returns. The Youth Counselor will check chores daily. If the chore is not completed correctly, you may be asked to redo the chore. Failure to complete your chore will result in one day grounding.

As well as daily chores, all residents are required to maintain an organized and clean room. All rooms are checked daily at noon and all beds must be made and rooms clean before residents leave the house. Failure to do so will result in one day grounding for that day.

Guests

The Staff must be notified in advance if a resident is expecting a guest. Residents are not allowed to have Guests of the opposite sex in their bedrooms or anywhere on the second floor. Guests are only allowed in the designated areas, ie: living room, front porch and back patio. Guests may visit from 9 am - 12am, weekdays. 10am - 1am, weekends. Every resident is responsible for the actions of their guests and guests may not interfere and must show respect to the other residents. If a resident show disrespect towards any of the staff or other residents they will be asked by the counselor to leave. It is up to the staff to determine if the guest will be allowed to return.
